

House Resolution No. 556

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives take tremendous pleasure in recognizing those governmental employees who have proven to be invaluable citizens by continuously working for the betterment of society and higher standards of living for all; and

Whereas, Corrections Officer II Timothy J. Goebel of the Crossroads Correctional Center in Cameron, Missouri, will become the first recipient of the Missouri Department of Corrections Director's Coin of Excellence Award during ceremonies to be held on March 15, 2002; and

Whereas, the prestigious Director's Coin of Excellence will be presented to CO II Timothy Goebel in honor of his years of leadership and tireless efforts working with the Missouri Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics; and

Whereas, Timothy Goebel has also been chosen as a recipient of the John Michael Letz Award in recognition of his unselfish efforts and contributions to the success of the Missouri Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics presented by the Missouri Police Chiefs Association; and

Whereas, Timothy Goebel has distinguished himself for several years by providing the year-round leadership and vision necessary to impact the Missouri Special Olympics in a most favorable and successful manner; and

Whereas, Timothy Goebel has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include his wife, Barbara B. Goebel, and one daughter, Hannah M. Goebel, both of whom have brought great pride and happiness into his life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud Timothy Goebel's tireless efforts working with the Missouri Law Enforcement Torch Run for Special Olympics and to congratulate him upon his well-deserved selection for the Director's Coin of Excellence Award; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Corrections Officer II Timothy J. Goebel, as a measure of our esteem for him.
